Short Summary

According to HRIC, International PEN, and Dui Hua information based on official Chinese sources, authorities detained Mongol activist Hada on December 11, 1995, after he organized peaceful protests for ethnic rights in Hohhot, Inner Mongolia. In 1992, Hada founded the Southern Mongolian Democratic Alliance to promote self-determination and democracy in Inner Mongolia. According to DH, the Hohhot Intermediate People's Court sentenced him on December 26, 1996, to 15 years' imprisonment for "splittism" and "espionage," crimes under Articles 103 and 110 of China's Criminal Law. (Some sources report a November 11, 1996, sentencing date.) Fellow activist Tegexi received a 10-year sentence at the trial for "splittism" and was released in December 2002. The Inner Mongolia High People's Court rejected Hada's appeal in January 1997. He was held in the Inner Mongolia No. 4 Prison in Chifeng, where HRIC reported he was in poor health, denied proper medical treatment, and subjected to routine physical abuse. Hada's sentence expired on December 10, 2010, but he was not released. According to SMHRIC, as of December 2011, he remained in custody, held without legal basis at a facility in Hohhot.
